

ADRIAN SASSOON

Racso Jugarap

Curriculum Vitae

Born 1989, General Santos, Philippines

Working in Belgium

Filipino artist, Racso Jugarap, demonstrates an inimitable and contemporary style through the conception of his wire artistry.

His unique, handmade sculptures act as the skeletons to his overall concept. The detailed, woven wireworks are brought to life when illuminated, producing an array of shadows from their organic forms. Graceful and fluid, the sculptures seem to levitate and flow before your eyes.

“Metal wire, for me, is very malleable on its own, but if bound or woven together, it can create a solid structure – if you treat it like fabric, you can do almost anything with it.”

“My process is slow and repetitive. I use it as a meditation, a mantra. Curves have always been an element I am drawn to in my works. For me, curved shapes express fluid movement, and dynamism.”
